

Station 1- iCivics Simulation

“Do I Have the Right?”

1. Follow the link.
2. Complete the simulation, earning as many prestige points as you can.
3. When finished, print a detailed game certificate and turn in for a grade.

Station 2- iCivics Simulation

“Do I Have the Right?”

1. Follow the link.
2. Complete the simulation, earning as many prestige points as you can.
3. When finished, print a detailed game certificate and turn in for a grade.
4. If finish early, may work on a previous day's station.

Station 3- Amendments in the News

1. Read over the directions.
2. Choose an amendment.
3. Search the newspaper and/or reputable news sites to find evidence of this amendment and how it is in the news NOW.
4. Complete a typed summary of the article. The directions are listed on my website, along with the rubric.
5. If finish early, may work on a previous day's station.

Station 4- Amendment Infographic

1. Read the directions AND the rubric.
2. Research your amendment.
3. Explain it in 3-5 bullet points (student friendly terms NOT copied from the Internet or Textbook)
4. Create an image that represents your amendment.
5. If finish early, may work on a previous day's station.

Station 5- Amendments Chart

1. Continue filling out the chart started with me.
2. You will research amendments 11-27 and explain each in student friendly terms. (NOT copied from the Internet or a textbook- in your words, so you can understand it as will other 8th graders)
3. If finish early, may work on a previous day's station.

Station 6-Bill of Rights Practice

1. Complete the Google Form over the Bill of Rights
2. Read and respond to complete the 11 questions.
3. If finish early, may work on a previous day's station.

Station 7-Listenwise-

Amendments in the News Podcasts

1. Following the link on my website, log into Listenwise.
2. Click on the Station 7: Part 1 Assignment to listen about Animal Rights and Constitutional Law.
 - a. Listen and complete the graphic organizer comparing/contrasting the monkey and the photographic
 - b. Answer the questions
3. Then click Part 2 Assignment to listen about Cell Phone Searches.
 - a. Listen and then complete the questions.